

I oppose the proposal to weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law by allowing business to use the federal established business relationship exemption.